Maple Park Cemetery is a historic not-for-profit cemetery in the heart of the city. There is an on-site office where visitors can receive help with finding burial locations, purchasing grave spaces, or answering any questions about the cemetery. The cemetery Superintendent takes care of the day-to-day operations, and an unpaid board of directors oversees the superintendent. To find the office, turn right on the first road inside the cemetery. The office is a small stone cottage on your right, halfway between the entrance and the end of the road.
