Grip Nuts—

are not nut locks, nor jam nuts, nor just lock nuts. They're Standard Nuts — that lock.

Carefully gauged for uniform size, they fit your wrenches; no slipping, no filing wrench jaws to fit. That speeds up work — with safety.

Grip Nuts' deep, full threads hold firmly under every test; their lock is positive and automatic. If you've applied Grip Nuts, you've locked them; they hold until you wrench them off.

The 60-Hour Mainspring "Speaks" Your Language

You are constantly fulfilling the requirements of dependability, efficiency, safety—and know the importance of reserve power.

Lou (Accuracy) Acker, Technical Superintendent of Illinois Watch is pointing out to three of your fellow railroad employees the efficiency, reserve power, and dependability of the 60-hour mainspring in Illinois Railroad Watches.

Notice on chart the constant rate of performance of the 60-hour mainspring from an actual test. For practically 38 hours the Illinois BUNN SPECIAL keeps ticking away in the same cadence. The average watch, without 60-hour mainspring feature, starts losing power approximately 18 hours after winding.

Buy an Illinois Railroad Watch, wind it every 24 hours, and provide yourself with safety and dependability in a timepiece. Your jeweler will tell you of many other superior features in Illinois Railroad Watches.

Remember too, when considering the purchase of a watch for other members of your family, that Illinois Watches are made in America by American craftsmen.

Buy an Illinois Watch in preference to an imported one and increase American employment.
