Back in the early '80s, when organized labor was battling for its very life, I began making Carhartt overalls under Trade Union conditions.

Union Men, Are You Keeping the Faith?

Those were dark and troublesome days for Union men who believed in them, but though deserted by friends and persecuted by foe, I stuck to my task of making Carhartt overalls under Trade Union conditions.

Union Men, Are You Keeping the Faith?

I blazed the way for making Union made overalls when it took real and great personal sacrifice to do it, and I assure you I have never had cause to regret it.

Union Men, Are You Keeping the Faith?

I not only made Carhartt overalls under Union conditions, but made every effort to stamp out the loathsome sweat shops, and to lighten the burden of underpaid workers.

Union Men, Are You Keeping the Faith?

To my old Union comrades, who have all these years recognized me as a friend and brother, and have loyally stuck by me through thick and thin, here is my heart and thanks.

Union Men, Are You Keeping the Faith?

To the Union men who show no appreciation of my efforts in behalf of Union Labor, I cherish not the slightest feeling of resentment, holding that every man has a right to his own convictions.

Union Men, Are You Keeping the Faith?

For overall makers, who imitate the Carhartt overall and profit by the sacrifices I have made, I have only pity and bear them no ill will.

Union Men, Are You Keeping the Faith?

I glory in the fact that I have made the manufacture of overalls under Trade Union conditions possible all over America, and have improved working conditions and secured higher wages and shortened the working hours for a multitude of deserving Union men and women.

UNION MEN, I leave you to draw your own conclusions. Write me and I will send you a handsome souvenir as a remembrance.

Your friend,
