

Collection Summary

Creator:	Dunn and Tallman Families
Title:	Dan Barnard World War II Collection
Dates:	1942-1945
Quantity:	1 clamshell box; 3 folders; 13 items
Scope:	This collection consists of items pertaining to the Dunn and Tallman families during World War II. William John Dunn and Charlotte Mary Dunn were born to John James Dunn Jr. and Emily Ann Mullen. William Dunn served in World War II with the 84 th division. He was present at the Battle of the Bulge. His sister Charlotte worked on the home front as a "Rosie the Riveter," building planes for use overseas. Charlotte married Harley Sheldon Tallman in 1932. They later moved their family from California to Rogersville, Missouri in 1944. This collection contains items relating to William, Charlotte, and Harley during the war including a letter from William Dunn to his sister Charlotte Tallman, a Navy press release for the sinking of the USS Hornet, and several war rations books for Charlotte and Harley Tallman and their daughter Joyce.
