November, 1924

Fruit Cake
1 Sift 3 cups of sugar
2 Sift 3 cups of flour
3 Sift 2 cups of sour milk
4 Sift 1 cup of brown sugar
5 Sift 1 cup of chopped nuts
6 Add 1 cup of molasses
7 Add 1 cup of water
8 Add 2 eggs
9 Add 1 cup of butter
10 Add 1 cup of milk
11 Add 1 cup of vanilla
12 Add 1 cup of rum
13 Add 1 cup of raisins
14 Mix all together and bake 2 hours.
"Charlie" Baltzell Writes a Letter—and It's a Good One—Read It

"If you like the boxing game—and I know you do—the first consideration is to take absolutely perfect care of yourself. Remember, the dissipation of any kind.

The worst of those is Charles H. Baltzell, experient of the Southwestern Division. And they are contained in a letter written by Mr. Baltzell to Charlie Minnick, Prince messe- nger boy at Oklahoma City East Yard. A real pleasure recently won fame and distinction in several ama- teur boxing bouts in Oklahoma City and Baltimore, always a fight fan, and himself at one time a trainer of champions and an athlete of considerable reputation, has taken a deep interest in him. It is a way Baltzell has, that of taking interest in the young people around and about him.

Minnick received a decision over Louis Henry in the third round of one dissipation of any kind."

He says, "My dear Charlie. Thank you for the newspaper clippings about your work, you will always get an honest day's work, you will always get an honest day's pay.

I do not hesitate to say that my deep- seated enthusiasm over every form of athletics is based on this—just as soon as they become interested in athletics of any kind they see the necessity for keeping themselves in clean, fine healthy condition, and what a wonderful thing it would be if every boy in the United States between the ages of 12 and 18 would make up his mind that he was to be a real "honest-to-goodness" athlete and live accordingly. Wouldn't we have a wonderful set of men in a very short time."

This is a wonderful letter, boys, and yes, this is addressed to girls, too, for women of today are more and more entering into active competition in out-of-door and indoor athletics.

Superintendent Baltzell has a broad vision of life. He has spent most of his life in the great out-of-doors. He is an extrovert over every form of sports. At the ringside, on the sal- lines, from the bleachers and the grandstands, he shows his approval of good plays and clean sportsmanship. Now and then he gets a real taste of the old, active life of his younger days—although no one today would dare accuse him of being in the least aged—for ever so often he is called upon to referee or umpire, and he does it well and impartially.

Superintendent Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line.

And along with this go the best wishes of the Frisco Employes' Magazine to young Charlie Minnick.

What Harry Thayer of Memphis Has to Say

You should go to meetings whenever possible, such as safety first meetings, football meetings, shopmen's meetings, or any other meetings that are taking place. For someone will say something that will be beneficial to you, and only by attending these meetings regularly, will you be able to get the maximum of benefit out of the proceedings in order that you might improve the methods that are in use in your own shop.

Past performances have no market value. See if you can place a real value on your service of today. It is up to you.

The hardest thing I ever tried, was to make a business of selling a cake eater.

The man who does not put forth every day's pay.

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

The man who does not put forth every day's pay.

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.

"Baltzell has hit upon some mighty truths in that letter, and it is the spirit in which he always deals with the young people of his territory. There is food for thought in every line."

"If you can't dangerous prac- tices then you shouldn't enter them. Whenever a thing is fine with you, don't worry, they may not get any. When things are going wrong, don't worry, they may not get worse.
Letter from the Boy who Went West to Secure a Railroad Job

The following letter published in an exchange was written to the home folks by a young man who went west to secure work and decided that a job as brakeman on the railroad offered opportunities as well as thrills.

"I just worked around quite a bit and think I will go to work on the railroad as a brakeman. This looks like a good job and the pay is good, the fellow who is this way is not paid. When I thought of going to work I asked the superintendent what the pay would be for a month's work. I could not get the answer for the time I was looking for the place to work out of that man's vault. When I was thinking of going there, he explained to me and said I would come back for two or three days next week if he would like to meet with me. The pay is good and the pay is good, but if I would come back for two or three days next week he would have a couple of clerks. I asked the clerk for the pay and he said he would give it to me in the same way. For your information we will give you the movement of a car to the nearest point, thereby have a just complaint, to make this claim, I surely appreciate it. I am, Signed I. THOMAS WHITE.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY.

Dear Sirs:

We have received the trunk, that was damaged and returned to you to be repaired. We will give you the movement of a car to the nearest point, thereby have a just complaint, to make this claim, I surely appreciate it. I am, Signed I. THOMAS WHITE.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY.

Dear Sirs:

We have received the trunk, that was damaged and returned to you to be repaired. We will give you the movement of a car to the nearest point, thereby have a just complaint, to make this claim, I surely appreciate it. I am, Signed I. THOMAS WHITE.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY.

Dear Sirs:

We have received the trunk, that was damaged and returned to you to be repaired. We will give you the movement of a car to the nearest point, thereby have a just complaint, to make this claim, I surely appreciate it. I am, Signed I. THOMAS WHITE.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY.

Dear Sirs:

We have received the trunk, that was damaged and returned to you to be repaired. We will give you the movement of a car to the nearest point, thereby have a just complaint, to make this claim, I surely appreciate it. I am, Signed I. THOMAS WHITE.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY.
Joplin's Industries and Beauty Spots

1.—Thomas Fruit Company.
2.—Beautiful Springs.
3.—Scotsman Rite Cathedral.
4.—Grand Palace.
5.—View, with foreground, a pile of 'sand' as the "million dollar ore pile."
6.—Mill where a Schifferdecker Park, Joplin.
7.—An Apartment Hotel.
8.—Joplin's Swimming Pool. 12.—Hotel.
Spots are Teeming With Attractiveness

Spring near Joplin. 1.—The Joplin Y. M. C. A. building. 2.—Mill of Falls, a Joplin District resort. 3.—In the mining tool plant area ready to be shipped. This is known ore ore is separated from dirt taken from mines. 4.—Front; house at Joplin. 5.—A business block and 6.—Electric Tunnels to dust mines at Joplin.