Quail season opened November 10. Ye scribe and another fellow went hunting. The total of the kill was the proverbial limit of ten of which all but eleven were bagged by Frank J. A. Griffith, night general yardmaster has a new radio. First station he located was in Montana. Pretty soon we look for him to be listening in on the really far away stations.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Glass, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ebright and little son Arlie Junior, and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Pinnell, attended the banquet given by D. W. Nichols Lodge No. 167, B. of R. T., at Springfield, on November 11. All report a very charming program and general good time.

Memories of the days of old, assail the old timers when they take a look at engine 3730 in the capable charge of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kyler have returned from a short visit with friends in Miami, Oklahoma.

Fred C. Williams, switchman on the three p. m. crew, has bid in a temporary vacancy on the seven a. m. crew, occasioned by the absence of switchman J. C. Williams who is laid off sick.

“Mandelon Jack” a traveling musician, paid us a call at the shanty, few nights ago. Jack didn’t have his mandelon so we were not treated to a sample of his skill. The switch tender tells us that Jack is quite an entertainer even without his musical instrument.

Barnev Conlee, third trick switch tender, has been laying off, nursing a sore knee. John “Big Jack” Shipley has been officiating in his absence while Howard White filled Shipley’s vacancy as foreman on the third trick coach crew.
