

"Loyalty". He urged the employes of the Frisco to practice loyalty in their every day work, to their city, community, schools and friends. In his concluding sentence, Mr. Jackson said: "Loyalty is akin to co-operation, and the man or woman who will co-operate in the things of life to attain loyalty, the least that can be said of them is that he and she is a gentleman and a lady."

The musical and entertainment program consisted of numbers presented by daughters and sons of Frisco employes of Ft. Scott and were given in the following order: Flute solo, Miss Gladys Jones, accompanied by Miss Marguerite Jones; solo, Miss Fay Taylor, accompanied by Miss Jones; piano solo, Mr. Floyd Sappington.

Miss Martha Moore of the The Frisco Employes' Magazine, St. Louis, brought greetings from the central committee in St. Louis and presented two monologues, which were well received.

At the conclusion of the musical program, the Frisco Broadcasters' five-piece orchestra furnished a variety of dance music. While the dancing was in progress, several tables of players enjoyed bridge in the parish parlors, where Mrs. J. O. Armstrong, assisted by Mrs. Edith Austin and Mrs. E. L. Gelwix, presided. Ladies' high score was won by Mrs. J. T. Richardson and gentlemen's high score by Murray Weathers. Ladies' consolation prize was won by Mrs. J. O. Armstrong and the gentlemen's consolation prize by Mr. M. W. Sullivan.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. E. G. Baker, assistant general passenger agent at Kansas City; Mr. W. B. Berry, master mechanic at Kansas City; Mr. M. J. Conley, division freight agent at Joplin; Mr. C. R. Welsh, traveling auditor of Kansas City; Mr. J. L. Kiburz, supervisor of records of St. Louis; Mr. Fay Warren, president of the Tulsa Club, and Miss Martha C. Moore, associate editor, Frisco Employes' Magazine, St. Louis.

Neodesha, Kansas

The Frisco Employes' Club of Neodesha entertained the families of members of the club and employes from Piedmont, New Albany, Lazarus and Cherryvale, Kans., with a card, checkers, domino, jacks and indoor horseshoe party, the night of March 22. The attendance was approximately 150 persons.

A short talk on accident prevention was made by C. C. Mills, Springfield, Mo., accident prevention agent. The refreshment committee served punch and wafers shortly before the party ended.

This club's entertainments are becoming more popular each month and the members certainly are supporting every undertaking of the club, whether business or social, stated H. M. Cloud, dispatcher, president of the club.

Tulsa, Okla.

Approximately 250 Frisco employes and their friends attended the dance given by the Frisco Employes' Club of Tulsa at Cain's Dancing Academy, April 6. The consensus of opinion was that this was the most successful entertainment given by this club this season.

Out-of-town guests included M. M. Sisson, assistant general manager, Springfield, Mo., and C. T. Mason, superintendent of the Southwestern division, Sapulpa.

"The club dances seem to be growing in favor and everyone is getting very enthusiastic about them," said Lynn C. Holloway, secretary of the club. "The club is increasing its activities, month by month, and more enthusiasm is being created all the while. The social activities have reached the point where there is something to be looked forward to and a number of things are being planned for the future."

Ames, Oklahoma

Each time he makes a purchase from a merchant, C. Laubhan section foreman, asks that merchant to give his freight business to the Frisco. Mr. Laubhan said at the meeting of the Frisco Employes' Club of Ames, Okla., held March 27. The attendance at this meeting was six employes and Gus Laubhan, a high school student.

L. B. Lindley, agent and secretary of the club, said in part: "I am glad, indeed, to see you men and visitors present at this meeting tonight and wish to advise I am doing everything possible to hold all LCL business we now have and secure more. A good safety first rule we have at this place is that we have three rural school truck busses that bring the school children from their homes to school and return each day. These trucks pass the tracks coming in and going out, just east of the depot at Ames. We have formed a rule for each bus to stop before crossing the track and one boy to get out and walk to the crossing, and if no train is coming, give the bus a signal to cross. I believe if we had not formed this rule, we would have had some bad accidents before now."

Joplin, Missouri

Eighty-six Frisco employes and members of their families attended the monthly meeting of the Frisco Employes' Club of Joplin, held April 16, at the M. E. Church, South Seventh and Moffett. The program consisted of a dinner served by the ladies of the church, and entertainment arranged by Stewart L. Baney, of the club.

The wording of the menu by Mr. Baney was unique and included the phrases "A la Frisco", "Au de-Railment" "Bluebonnet Special" and "Florida Special". Several songs, the words written by Mr. Baney, were sung to old-time tunes and were hits. A puzzle, consisting of twenty jumbled up words, proved to contain the names of twenty towns on the Frisco.

At this meeting it was announced that Frisco women at Joplin have formed a club and meetings will be held once a month.

Jonesboro, Arkansas

One hundred and fifty persons, including relatives and friends of members, attended the monthly meeting of the Frisco Employes' Club of Jonesboro, held March 23, at Elks Hall. Addresses, readings and dancing comprised the program.

R. J. Slagle, agent, president of the club, presided. C. J. Chapin, secretary of the Jonesboro Chamber of Commerce, spoke on co-operation between chambers of commerce and railroads. E. L. Westbrook, Frisco district attorney, Jonesboro, who spoke on the value of courteous treatment of the shipping public by railroad employes. R. B. Butler, superintendent of the Southern division, Memphis, spoke of the opportunities each Frisco employe has to aid in increasing Frisco traffic.

Readings were by Miss Newberry, Mrs. E. W. Collins and Mrs. Bertha Weaver. Dancing, to music by Wade's orchestra, completed the program. The consensus of opinion was that the meeting was a decided success.

Okeene, Oklahoma

The meeting of the Frisco Employes' Club of Okeene, Okla., held March 30, was attended by thirty-three persons, including employes from Ames, Southard, Carleton and Eagle City, and the principal business was short talks on traffic solicitation.

R. W. Boone, agent, secretary of the club, presided because of the absence of Wiley Stanley, president, and Frank Emmons, vice-president, both ill.

R. C. Canady, assistant superintendent of the Western division, Enid, was one of the principal speakers. Others who spoke were: C. Laubhan, section foreman, Ames; J. B. Soward, section foreman, Eagle City, who stated that he was the oldest section foreman on the Western division, having been in Frisco service forty years and section foreman thirty-eight of them; L. B. Lindley, agent, Ames, who talked on how to get more business by being courteous to the public and on accident prevention; G. R. Monell, agent, Eagle City, who said that motor trucks should pay more taxes; J. B. Edwards, section foreman at Carleton, who said that he trains his men to do their work safely, that he studies the book of rules at night and loans it to his men to study; C. A. Hurst, agent at Southard; L. G. Henderson, cashier at Southard, who said he was doing all he could to keep children off the tracks; T. F. Jones, roadmaster, Enid, who spoke on better service.

Visitors included: Rev. C. A. Watkins, pastor, Christian Church; O. G. Groatman, vice-president, State Guaranty Bank; L. T. Creech, superintendent of schools; C. L. Addis, retired farmer; M. W. Wynne, manager Long-Bell Lumber Company; John Rucker, president, Mutual Telephone Company; Frank Scott, manager, Scott Transfer Company; W. H. Anderson, Magnolia Petroleum Company; E. P. Barnes, real estate dealer.

Monett, Missouri

The superintendent and the assistant superintendents of the Eastern division and all traffic officials of the Frisco in the Monett, Mo., territory are included in the honorary membership of the Frisco Employees' Club of Monett, as a result of a motion to this effect passed unanimously at the meeting of this club held March 28, at the railroad branch of the Y. M. C. A., at Monett. An honorary membership card will be presented to each honorary member.

Speakers at the meeting, which was attended by nineteen members, included E. L. Magers, Springfield, superintendent of the Eastern division, a guest, who said that it was necessary for every employe to exercise as much activity as possible toward increasing Frisco business; William Henry, chairman of the membership committee, who announced that the Monett club is the second largest on Frisco Lines; J. J. Charles, president of the club, who said that there was a high degree of loyalty on the part of Frisco employes towards the Frisco; A. T. Brown, chairman of the Greater Traffic Committee of the club, who urged personal contact between heads of departments and the men under their jurisdiction, and also said that he thought it a good plan for employes at Monett to join the civic clubs there.

Blackwell, Oklahoma

Some of the courtesies shown by Frisco employes at Blackwell, Okla., toward Frisco freight shippers, there were detailed by speakers at the meeting of the Frisco Employees' Club of Blackwell held March 28.

Speakers at this meeting included: F. C. Gow, assistant superintendent of the Western division, Enid; E. A. Miller, agent, president of the club; C. J. Conley, fireman; C. C. Mills, Oklahoma City, accident prevention agent; M. F. Casey, engineer; Lee Rollins, car inspector; E. R. Frisko Club Songs

The following songs were written by Stewart L. Baney, baggage agent at Joplin, Mo., for the Frisco Employes' Club of Joplin, and were sung at a meeting of that club April 16.

TUNE—Beulah Land

From St. Louis to Texas Land,
From Kansas plains to Alabama;
Traversing Ozarks healthy clime,
We're proud of you—our Frisco Line.

CHORUS

Oh, Frisco Line, dear Frisco Line,
Lodged in our hearts you are enshrined;

You mean our bread and bacon too,
Without you what would we all do,
Our very best we'll give to you
Business along your line we'll strew.

Two times a month we get our pay,
Don't have to wait another day;
We always can depend on you,
And so to you we'll be true blue.

CHORUS

Oh Frisco band, dear Frisco band,
See how much business we can land;
Solicit any one you know
And tell them Frisco they must go,
Sell Frisco service all the while
And watch our bosses laugh and smile.

TUNE—Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here

Hail to the Frisco Club
Everyone a booster,
Engineers, conductors
Ticket men and freight men too,
We're the Frisco Booster Club.

Biz, Biz, we want the Biz
So let's go out and get it.
No one's going to fetch it;
Hurry up, and don't delay
Or some of it will get away.

Frisko, Frisko, let's all make friends,
Smile and make them like you;
And they'll be glad to help you,
Boost your road with all your might
And things are bound to come out right.

Pay, Pay, we like our Pay,
So help the Frisco make it;
Don't simply stand and take it,
Help bring the business in
Be a Booster Club—sure 'nuff.

man, Enid; F. W. Coleman, cashier-operator; O. W. Hern, car clerk; J. Yarbrough, section foreman, who spoke of keeping team tracks in good condition; William Weatherly, warehouse foreman; Fred Smith, dispatcher, Newburg, Mo.; J. Brigrance, section foreman, Peckham, Okla.; J. D. Fountain, freight conductor, who spoke of his aiding in the loading of a car of freight so that it could make his train; A. S. Clark, agent, Lamont, Okla. Twenty-six employes attended this meeting.

Oklahoma City, Okla.

Two hundred and thirty-seven persons, consisting of employes, members of their families and friends, attended the combined business and social meeting of the Frisco Employees' Club of Oklahoma City, held March 22, at Bohemian Hall. D. L. Estes, operator, president of the club, presided.

Visitors included C. T. Mason superintendent of the Southwestern division, Sapulpa; M. M. Sisson, assistant general manager, Springfield, Mo., and F. W. Junkins, general chairman of the Frisco Association of Metal Crafts and Car Department Employes, Springfield, Mo.

Mr. Junkins talked briefly on traffic solicitation, Mr. Mason on the benefits to be derived from Frisco clubs, and Mr. Sisson emphasized that good service meant more business and that all employes could extend their services in some manner that would assist in securing business.

At the close of the business session the Kiltie Quartet sang a number of popular songs, dedicating them to the respective visitors, and the remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing, to music by the "Southern Serenaders."

Hayti, Missouri

The Frisco Employees' Club of Hayti, held a business meeting the night of March 19. The attendance was forty-one.

The principal speaker was C. K. Sims, acting assistant superintendent of the River division, Chaffee.

Henryetta, Oklahoma

Talks by F. A. McClaren, telegrapher, president of the Frisco Employees' Club of Henryetta; by F. A. Connell, traveling freight agent, Tulsa, and by several members of the club, and the reading of letters from J. M. Kurn, president, and J. E. Hutchison, vice-president, operation, expressing their appreciation of the employes' efforts and success in forming employe clubs and promising their full support at any time, featured the meeting of the Frisco Employees' Club of Henryetta, held April 10, at the freight depot.

The attendance was twenty-six.

Membership cards were issued to all present who already had joined the club. Announcement was made that the next monthly meeting would be held at the city hall, May 8, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Cape Girardeau, Missouri

Reports of committees constituted the principal business at the meeting of the Frisco Employes' Club of Cape Girardeau, held the night of April 2. The attendance was sixteen members and two visitors.

The by-laws committee reported that it had prepared a set of by-laws, which were read and tabled until the next meeting. The entertainment committee reported that it was preparing an entertainment program for the next meeting. The temporary committee to obtain a regular meeting place reported it had arranged for meetings of the club to be held at the Knights of Columbus hall.

A. Forman, chairman of the Greater Traffic Committee of the club, made a talk on obtaining new club members.

Cold Springs, Okla.

The relation of railroad employes to the public was dealt with by speakers at the meeting of the Frisco Employes' Club of Cold Springs, Okla., held March 26, and attended by approximately 30 persons.

A. Driskill, B. & B. foreman, Enid, was made chairman of the meeting as a mark of courtesy. He opened the meeting with a talk on traffic conditions and said that every one present was welcome and urged each one to speak out at the meeting on anything relative to railroads, farmers, stockmen and other business.

Floyd May, a stock farmer at Cold Springs, said that what the public wanted was service and accommodation. He said that his dealings with Frisco employes had been exceptionally pleasant compared with his dealings with employes in other lines of business. He said that Frisco people had given him many good ideas, enabling him in turn to give some of these ideas to his boys. He spoke of courtesy accorded him by Frisco employes when he shipped hogs and other live stock.

Mr. Driskill spoke again and said that if any employe of the Frisco were unable to reach certain of the public he should get some friend of the prospective shipper or passenger to work with him. Mr. Driskill advised his Frisco employe hearers to meet the public in a congenial way. He said much obtaining and holding of business depends on agents.

Other speakers included: B. W.

PRESIDENT KURN AT SPRINGFIELD

President J. M. Kurn and Mr. Frank Carter of St. Louis, a Frisco director, were guests of honor at a business meeting of the Frisco Men's Club of Springfield, held the evening of April 16, in the general office assembly room. Three hundred and fifty men club members attended.

In a short talk, President Kurn praised the system-wide club program as "one of the greatest movements ever inaugurated on this railroad.

"The officers of our company look upon the activities of these employe clubs as not only greatly beneficial to the company, but as a highly enjoyable and valuable work for the employes. I cannot stress too strongly the splendid results which are coming from this method of friendly co-operation. I can sincerely pledge you the hearty and enthusiastic support, not only of myself and the other officers of the company," President Kurn said.

Other speakers included Messrs. F. H. Shaffer, H. L. Worman, P. O. Wood and J. H. Doggrell and a discussion on traffic solicitation by employes was led by President J. W. Seabough.

A significant step toward organized employes solicitation on the part of the Springfield club was taken at this meeting when the entire club membership was divided into four traffic committees and a credit system established whereby each employe will receive credit for carload and LCL shipments and passengers. The four committee chairmen are F. L. DeGroat, of the superintendent of transportation's department; A. B. Sherwood, of the telegraph department; Walter Shackelford, of the west shop, who will represent all shop employes, and J. V. Kerr, of the superintendent of terminal's office.

Carley, agent at Mt. Park, Okla., and secretary of the club; M. G. Hughes, clerk at Roosevelt, Okla.; H. E. Eckstrom, agent at Cold Springs, and D. H. Nunn, agent at Roosevelt.

Carmen, Oklahoma

The recommendation, that agents watch billing and where Frisco is given short hauls, the matters be handled for correction was made during the meeting of the Frisco Employes' Club of Carmen, Okla., held March 26. The attendance was twenty-four.

The meeting was called to order by F. K. Shrock, agent at Carrier, president of the Carmen Club. He said that every station on the Avard sub of the Western division was represented at the meeting, except Hope-ton. He said that he wanted each employe and each visitor to know that this was his meeting and if he knew of any suggestion to help handle business better or to get additional business by service or personal contact, that the club certainly needed his help.

C. C. Mills, Oklahoma City, accident prevention agent, talked on the Veteran Employes' Association reunion to be held this year at Springfield.

Other speakers were: W. N. Patterson, roadmaster, Enid; F. O. Lea, agent at Goltry; W. R. Wilson, agent at Carmen and secretary of the club; C. A. Thornton, agent at Helena; J. J. Hood, agent at Dacoma; W. N. Patterson; J. Simms, section foreman; R. A. Heady, section foreman; R. C. Canady, assistant superintendent of the Western division, Enid.

Muskogee, Oklahoma

Fifteen passengers and ten freight shipments were obtained by members of the Greater Traffic Committee of the Frisco Employes' Club of Muskogee, since the last previous meeting of the club, H. P. Dutton, chairman of the committee reported at the meeting of the club held April 9, at the freight house. The attendance was fifteen.

W. R. Mills, agent at Hulbert, reported that complimentary remarks had been made by a livestock shipper at Hulbert regarding efficient handling the Frisco gave a livestock shipment of his, Hulbert-Kansas City. On motion made by J. W. Clark, yardmaster, the club voted to establish a fund with which to buy flowers in cases of illness or death among employes or their families. Mr. Clark was appointed secretary of this department. All present were enthusiastic about assisting in getting business and in furthering the interests of the club.

Madill, Oklahoma

The business meeting of the Frisco Employes' Club of Madill, Okla., held April 13, was devoted mainly to presentation by members of some of their ideas for the betterment of Frisco passenger and freight business.

Decision was reached to invite Madill business men to meet with the club at the club's next business meeting, April 27, for discussion of matters of mutual interest.

Birmingham, Ala.

President J. M. Kurn, Mr. J. R. Koontz, vice-president, traffic, and Mr. Frank Carter, a director of the Frisco, all of St. Louis, were surprise guests of honor at the dance and bridge party given April 18 at the Elks Club for members of the Frisco Employees' Club of Birmingham, their families and friends, by Frisco departmental heads there. The attendance was approximately 225 persons.

The three surprise guests were at Birmingham on a business trip and just "dropped in" at the big party, and were given an enthusiastic welcome.

The departmental heads who were the hosts to the club were: J. W. Skaggs, B. F. Elliott, W. R. Bennett, L. M. Westerhouse, J. J. Cummins, D. F. McDonough, C. J. Thompson, J. R. McGregor, W. A. Drago, M. G. Cooper, H. S. Coleman, J. B. Tyler and L. J. Mantoux.

The bridge "fans" played from 8 o'clock to midnight. Mrs. Martin Jennings had the direction of the bridge games. Dancing was from 9 o'clock to midnight.

The entertainment committee was: C. J. Thompson, W. W. Lane, A. H. Lawson, L. T. Hatcher, Mrs. Launa Chew, Miss Mae Dudley and Miss Eunice Hagerman.

Exclusive use of the Elks Club for that night was obtained by T. I. Dennis, fireman, vice-president of the Frisco Employees' Club of Birmingham.

Girls' Club of Springfield

The Frisco Girls' Club of Springfield held their most successful luncheon on April 18th at the Ontra. Through the courtesy of our Frisco Florist, Mr. Don B. Fellows, corsages of maidenhair fern and sweet peas were furnished for each guest and jonquil nut cups carried out the spring flower decorations, while bowls of yellow calendulas were on the tables.

Guests at the luncheon were: Miss Doris Gustafson, instructor in the Voice Department at State Teachers' College, and daughter of a Frisco veteran, who sang "Indian Love Call" from Rose Marie, and "Flirtation", accompanied at the piano by Miss Lois Fleming, also of the College.

Mrs. W. R. Boyd, President of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Frisco Veterans' Association delighted the girls with reminiscences of the days when she and two other girls were the envy of every Springfield girl, being the only girls employed by the railroad. She gave her pledge of full support of the club in their plans to present a program to the Veterans on the first night of their two-day meeting at Springfield in June.

Miss Dorcas Marcell gave a clever, well-received reading. Mrs. E. E. Dodd, who has just finished two large and successful personality classes of Frisco girls, was presented with a volume of Edgar A. Guest's poems, "The Light of Faith," and a basket of Killarney roses, by Miss Charlene Willard, from the two classes. Mrs. Dodd gave an interesting talk on "Personality" and its value to girls in the professions and in the business world.

Mr. Don B. Fellows announced the donors of the corsages: the Summerfield Floral Company, and a vote of thanks from the club was sent to them through Mr. Fellows. Mr. Fellows gave an interesting outline of the Frisco's program for beautification of station grounds, etc., and introduced Mrs. Fellows, manager and owner of the Boulevard Floral Company, inviting the girls to the greenhouses to see the finest collection of shrubs in the country.

Miss Myrtle Vane, formerly chief clerk per diem department of the car accountant's office, who has been seriously ill for the past four years, was welcomed at the luncheon with her mother, as special guests of Miss Mary Howell.

The Gymnasium Club of the Springfield Girls, with about twenty members, has just finished its work for the winter, closing with a demonstration at the Y. W. C. A. Monday the sixteenth in connection with other gym classes.

A swimming class with more than twenty members, has just been organized, having lessons on Monday and Thursday evenings of each week, beginning April 23rd, with Miss Florence Baker of the Y. W. C. A. as instructor.

Personality classes closed work with about fifty active members, having had a total of seventy during the winter. Mrs. Dodd will give advanced classes in personality next winter and will conduct a class of new students next year in the same work she has given this winter.

Through the courtesy of Miss Mary Howell of the car accountant's office, twenty-four members and guests of the bridge club, which has been tutored by Miss Verne Tulloch, enjoyed an evening at the James River Club recently. The girls motored to the club from work, where they enjoyed a sumptuous dinner. Prizes which were furnished by Miss Howell, were awarded as follows: high score, a pair of silk hose to Miss Alice Mae Mills of the Telegraph department; low score, a box of stationery to Miss Anna Mason of the car accountant's office; cut prize Quelque Fleurs bath powder to Miss Shirley Williamson of the car accountant's office. The members of the club presented Miss Tulloch with a dozen madeira napkins in appreciation of her work with them.

This club, through ten cent assessment of each member at the first few meetings, purchased four bridge tables for permanent use in the assembly room where they meet every Monday evening.

Lawton, Okla.

Plans for an entertainment in May were begun by the Frisco Employees' Club of Lawton, Okla., during the regular business meeting held April 13, attended by fifteen employees. Charles Harden was appointed chairman of the arrangements committee for the entertainment and other members of the committee are Paul Ewell and A. R. Van Lew, agent at Ft. Sill.

S. D. Leggett, agent-yardmaster, urged that members of the club be on the lookout for passenger and freight business. He said he wished to have a great number of tips to report at the next regular meeting.

Short talks were made regarding better service, more business, and a social program for the club.

St. Louis, Mo.

There wasn't a kick registered about the "service" at the joint dinner-theatre party of the Frisco Men's and Girls' Club, held at the Maryland Hotel and Ambassador Theatre, April 19, with more than 450 members of the two clubs in attendance. Each guest served himself!

It was a hilarious affair and began at 4:45 p. m., when the first shift filled the dining room. They shouted and laughed and called each other by name, and any non-Frisco guest, who happened to have chosen the place, knew instantly that a special party was in session.

The two club presidents, Miss Letto O. Connor and Mr. Frank Bymaster, smiled and greeted members who happened to pass their tables. As the members passed by the cashier, the girls were given a beautiful rose and the men a cigar or cigarettes.

Following the dinner there was a steady stream from the Maryland Hotel to the Ambassador Theatre, where the entire crowd were guests of Ed. Lowry, master of ceremonies. The
